PLAINTIFF MARK SESSA’S SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWERS AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANTS’ FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES

Judge Gloria M. Navarro

Magistrate Judge Brenda Weksler

Complaint Filed: December 17, 2020

Pursuant to Rules 26 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff Mark Sessa (“Plaintiff”) submits the following supplemental objections and responses to Defendants Ancestry.com Operations Inc., Ancestry.com Inc., and Ancestry.com LLC’s (“Defendants”) First Set of Interrogatories.

Plaintiff has responded to these Requests to the best of his present abilities. However, discovery, investigation, and trial preparation in this matter have not been completed and will continue as long as permitted by statute or stipulation. Although Plaintiff is conducting a diligent search and reasonable inquiry to comply with these Requests, as more expressly detailed below,

1 Plaintiff anticipates that, in the course of further investigation and discovery, additional 2 information may be obtained and/or discovered that might affect the responses provided herein.
 3 To be clear, an offer to produce documents does not admit that documents exist or are in the 4 possession of Plaintiff. Therefore, the following responses to Defendants' Requests are without 5 prejudice to, and with the express reservation of, Plaintiff's rights to introduce documents or 6 information discovered or deemed responsive up to and through the date of trial. However, 7 Plaintiff undertakes no duty to supplement these responses, except as expressly set forth below or 8 as is required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

9 DEFINITIONS

10 1. "You," "Your," or "Plaintiffs" shall mean Plaintiff Anthony Sessa and Mark 11 Sessa, and any of their agents, representatives, attorneys, assigns, and any other entities or persons 12 acting or purporting to act on their behalf, including counsel in this matter. The definition of 13 "Plaintiffs", "You", and "Your" may change for the purposes of discovery requests if and to the 14 extent Plaintiff amend their Complaint to add or remove named plaintiffs.

15 2. "Defendants" or "Ancestry" shall mean Defendants Ancestry.com Operations 16 Inc., Ancestry.com Inc., and Ancestry.com LLC, and any of their agents, representatives, and/or 17 any other persons or entities appearing to act on their behalf.

18 3. "Action" shall mean the above captioned matter, Sessa et al. v. Ancestry.com 19 Operations Inc. et al., Case No. 2:20-cv-02292 (D. Nev.).

20 4. "Complaint" shall mean the Complaint filed in this Action on December 17, 2020.

21 5. "Yearbook Records" shall mean the yearbooks at issue in the Complaint.

22 6. "Yearbook Information" shall mean anything contained in or that could be derived 23 from the Yearbook Records, including but not limited to photographs, pictures, student names, 24 name of school, school location, grade, estimated age, and school activities.

25 7. "Document" is used in the broadest possible sense as interpreted under the Federal 26 Rules of Civil Procedure and encompasses both hard copy documents and electronically stored 27 information. By way of example "document" includes, without limitation, all originals, copies, 28

1 and drafts of any written, printed, or graphic matter, and all “writings” as defined in Federal Rule 2 of Evidence 1001, including, without limitation, the following: abstracts, advertisements, 3 agendas, agreements, analyses of any kind, appointment calendars, articles, assignments, audio 4 recordings, blueprints, books, brochures, charts, circulars, compilations, contracts, diaries, letters, 5 email, reports (including reports or notes of telephone or other conversations), memoranda, 6 brochures, books, ledgers, drawings, photographs, videos, specifications, drafts, catalogs, 7 instructions, invoices, bills of materials, minutes, orders, publications, purchase orders, proposals, 8 working papers, text messages, social media communications, and other writings of whatsoever 9 nature, whether on paper or other information storage means, including film and computer 10 memory devices; all drafts prepared in connection with any such writings, whether used or not; 11 and where any such items contain any marking not appearing on the original or are altered from 12 the original, then such items shall be considered to be separate original documents.

13 8. “Communication” shall be construed to the fullest extent under the Federal Rules 14 of Civil Procedure and shall mean, without limitation, the transmittal, disclosure, transfer, or 15 exchange of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries, or otherwise), by any means 16 whatsoever, including orally or in writing, and by any medium whatsoever, including in person, 17 via telephone or via digital or electronic communication.

18 9. “Identify” or “Describe”: (a) When used relating to any natural persons, shall mean 19 to provide, to the extent known, the person’s full name, present or last known business address, 20 and phone number. (b) When used relating to any non-natural person, “identify” shall mean to 21 state the name of the business, legal, or governmental entity or association, and the present or last 22 known address and telephone number of such business, legal, or governmental entity or 23 association. (c) When used relating to any Document, “identify” shall mean to give, to the extent 24 then known, the (i) type of Document; (ii) general subject matter; (iii) date of the Document; (iv) 25 author(s), addressee(s) and recipients(s); and (v) Bates numbers if produced in this action. When 26 used relating to any agreement, “identify” shall mean to give, to the extent known, its date and 27 the place where it occurred, and identify all persons who were parties to the agreement and each 28

1 person who has knowledge of the agreement, and all other persons present when it was made, and 2 the subject matter of the agreement. (e) When used in reference to one or more acts, events, 3 instances, occasions, circumstances, meetings, conversations, allegations, or contentions, shall 4 mean to state all facts concerning the subject matter in detail, including the date and place thereof, 5 to identify the individual participants, to summarize separately for each individual participant 6 what she or he said or did, and to identify each Document or Communication used or prepared in 7 connection therewith or making any reference thereto.

8 10. "Person" shall mean any natural person or legal entity, including a corporation, 9 partnership, proprietorship, group, association, organization, business entity, governmental body, 10 agency, or trust, and its predecessors, successors or current and former parents, subsidiaries, 11 affiliates, partners, officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents (including attorneys, 12 accountants and investment or other advisors), or any other person or entity acting, or purporting 13 to act, on its behalf.

14 11. "Refer to," "Relate to," and "Relating to" shall mean concerning, referring to, 15 summarizing, reflecting, constituting, containing, embodying, pertaining to, involved with, 16 mentioning, discussing, consisting of, comprising, showing, commenting upon, evidencing, or 17 describing the subject matter.

18 INSTRUCTIONS

19 1. Answers to these Interrogatories are to be based upon all knowledge or 20 information available to Plaintiffs, including, but not limited to, (1) all information or knowledge 21 derivable from business or other records and (2) all knowledge or information possessed by any 22 Person, including but not limited to, any employee, agent, attorney, expert witness, consultant, 23 representative or other advisor, subject to the instruction, direction, or control of Plaintiffs.

24 2. You are to answer each Interrogatory by providing all responsive information. If 25 You are unable to answer any of the following Interrogatories fully and completely, after 26 exercising due diligence to secure the information necessary to make full and complete answers, 27 so state. In addition, answer each such Interrogatory to the fullest extent possible, specifying Your 28

1 knowledge and Your inability to answer the remainder, and state whatever information or 2 knowledge You may have concerning the unanswered portions of the Interrogatory, together with 3 the identity of each Document or source from which more complete information is obtainable.

4 3. If You object to any Interrogatory, You should specifically and separately state the 5 reason for the objection so as to permit the Court to determine the legal sufficiency of Your 6 objection or position, and provide the most responsive information You are willing to provide 7 without a court order. If You object to any interrogatory, specify the part to which You object, 8 state Your objections, state all factual and legal justifications that You believe support Your 9 objections, and respond to the remainder to which You do not object.

10 4. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5), if You withhold otherwise responsive 11 information based on a claim the information is privileged, please provide a privilege log that 12 includes: the nature of the material not disclosed; the date and time the material was created or 13 sent; the identity of each author and recipient; the number of pages, attachments, and exhibits; 14 and all information on which You base Your claim of privilege.

15 5. If Your response to a particular Interrogatory is a statement that You lack the 16 ability to provide a response to that Interrogatory, You must specify whether the inability to 17 provide a response is because the particular item or category of information never existed, has 18 been destroyed, has been lost, misplaced, or stolen, or has never been, or is no longer, in Your 19 possession, custody, or control, in which case the name and address of any Person known or 20 believed by You to have possession, custody, or control of that information or category of 21 information must be identified.

22 6. If information responsive to any Interrogatory is contained in a Document, please 23 produce any such Document or provide information sufficient to identify any such Document, 24 including Bates number where applicable.

25 7. These Interrogatories shall be deemed continuing in nature. You shall supplement 26 Your responses in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e) within a reasonable time if You obtain 27 or become aware of any further information responsive to these Interrogatories.

1           8. In construing these Interrogatories, the terms “any,” “all,” “every,” and “each” 2 shall be construed to include the other(s) as necessary to bring within the scope of these 3 Interrogatories all information that might otherwise be construed to be outside of the scope of the 4 Interrogatories. In addition, the terms “and,” “or,” and “and/or” shall be construed either 5 disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of these Interrogatories all 6 information that might otherwise be construed to be outside of the scope of the Interrogatories.

7                   OBJECTIONS TO DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

8           1. Plaintiff objects to Defendants’ definition of “You” or “Your” as overly broad 9 because it encompasses entities or persons who are not parties to this lawsuit. Plaintiff also objects 10 to the inclusion of Anthony Sessa in this definition, and will only respond on his own behalf.
11 Plaintiff has no relevant “agents,” “representatives,” or “assigns” apart from the undersigned 12 counsel, that are pertinent to this lawsuit, and has authorized no other persons or entities to act on 13 his behalf. Plaintiff objects to Defendants’ Interrogatories and each individual request therein, to 14 the extent they seek information not available from sources within Plaintiff’s possession, custody, 15 or control. Such Interrogatories seek to impose obligations on Plaintiff that are not authorized by 16 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and are objectionable on that ground. Accordingly, Plaintiff 17 will respond to Defendants’ Requests by providing only information and documents available from 18 sources within their possession, custody, or control. Plaintiff also objects to Defendants’ definition 19 of “You” or “Your” as vague and ambiguous to the extent that it does not define “acting on their 20 behalf.”

21           2. Plaintiff further objects to Defendants’ definition of “You” or “Your” to the extent 22 that the reference to “attorneys” calls for documents and information protected from discovery 23 by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, the right of privacy of any 24 person or entity, or any other applicable privilege or protection. Plaintiff will not produce 25 privileged or protected material but will log withheld responsive, privileged documents according 26 to the parties’ ESI Protocol (Dkt. 73).

27           3. Plaintiff objects to Instruction No. 1 as imposing obligations inconsistent with the 28

1 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' Interrogatories and each 2 individual request therein, to the extent they seek information not available from sources within 3 Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control. Plaintiff also objects to Instruction No. 1 to the extent 4 that the reference to "attorney" calls for documents and information protected from discovery by 5 the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, the right of privacy of any person 6 or entity, or any other applicable privilege or protection.

7 4. Plaintiff objects to Instruction No. 2 as imposing obligations inconsistent with the 8 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. If an Interrogatory or Request for Production is duplicative, 9 Plaintiff will respond consistently and will only produce responsive documents and information 10 once. Plaintiff also objects to Instruction No. 2 as imposing obligations greater than those in the 11 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff will only produce responsive, relevant, non-privileged 12 documents in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control. Plaintiff will log withheld responsive, 13 privileged documents according to the parties' ESI Protocol (Dkt. 73).

14 5. Plaintiff objects to Instruction No. 3 as imposing obligations inconsistent with the 15 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff is not required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 16 to provide the requested explanation and information. However, Plaintiff is willing to meet and 17 confer about responses where Defendants think further explanation is necessary.

18 6. Plaintiff objects to Instruction No. 5 as imposing obligations inconsistent with the 19 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff is not required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
20 to provide the requested explanation and information. However, Plaintiff is willing to meet and 21 confer about responses where Defendants think further explanation is necessary.

22 7. Plaintiff objects to Instruction No. 6 as imposing obligations inconsistent with the 23 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff will not produce documents in response to 24 interrogatories, should Defendants desire certain documents then they should make requests for 25 production.

SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWERS TO INTERROGATORIES

INTERROGATORY NO. 1: Identify all Persons to whom You have granted any license, permission, or authorization to use Your name, likeness, identity, or persona, if any, including but not limited to by contract, gift, conveyance, assignment, devise, or testamentary trust.

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to the relevance of the requested information as the information, whatever it may be, has no bearing on any claims or defenses in this action. Pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. §§ 597.770 et seq., it was Defendants' obligation to obtain Plaintiff's "written consent" before making commercial use of their names, photographs, likenesses, and personas and, Plaintiff alleges, Defendants failed to obtain that prior written consent. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges "Ancestry has not received consent from, given notice to, or provided compensation to the millions of Nevadans whose names, photographs, biographical information, and identities appear in its Ancestry Yearbook Database" and that "Ancestry did not ask the consent of the people whose personal information and photographs it profits from." Complaint at ¶¶ 4, 13. Whether Plaintiff has consented to a different, entirely unrelated entity's use of their personal information is irrelevant to whether Plaintiff gave their consent to Defendants for purposes of "advertising, selling or soliciting the purchase of any product, merchandise, goods or service." Plaintiff objects to this request as overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case to the extent it is not limited in time or scope.

Subject to and without waiving any objections, and to the extent that Plaintiff is able to understand what is sought in this request, he responds as follows: none.

SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER 11/21/2022: The parties met and conferred on this request on October 20, 2022. In light of this conversation, subject to the above and without waiving any objections, to the best of his recollection and consistent with his response to Request No. 1, Plaintiff has never knowingly granted any Person any license, permission, or authorization to use his name, likeness, identity, or persona. To the extent it is responsive, and Plaintiff disputes that it is, Plaintiff has had limited use of Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, and Classmates.com.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2: For each Person set forth in Your response to Interrogatory No. 1 separately Describe all facts regarding the nature and circumstances of Your grant of any license, permission or authorization to use Your likeness, identity, or persona, including Identifying any Documents evidencing such license, permission or authorization.

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to the relevance of the requested information as the information, whatever it may be, has no bearing on any claims or defenses in this action. Pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. §§ 597.770 et seq., it was Defendants' obligation to obtain Plaintiff's "written consent" before making commercial use of their names, photographs, likenesses, and personas and, Plaintiff alleges, Defendants failed to obtain that prior written consent. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges "Ancestry has not received consent from, given notice to, or provided compensation to the millions of Nevadans whose names, photographs, biographical information, and identities appear in its Ancestry Yearbook Database" and that "Ancestry did not ask the consent of the people whose personal information and photographs it profits from." Complaint at ¶¶ 4, 13. Whether Plaintiff has consented to a different, entirely unrelated entity's use of their personal information is irrelevant to whether Plaintiff gave his consent to Defendants for purposes of "advertising, selling or soliciting the purchase of any product, merchandise, goods or service." Plaintiff objects to this request as overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case to the extent it is not limited in time or scope.

Subject to and without waiving any objections, and to the extent that Plaintiff is able to understand what is sought in this request, he responds as follows: none.

INTERROGATORY NO. 3: Identify all facts supporting Your allegation that You have suffered an injury that You attribute to Ancestry.

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks information protected by the attorney client privilege and work product doctrines. Plaintiff also objects to this request as unduly burdensome and overbroad in that it is not limited in terms of scope or time. Discovery is ongoing, and Plaintiff's answer to this request is, in part, dependent on information and documents in Defendants' possession. Plaintiff further objects because the request seeks information that may already be in the possession, custody, or control of Defendants and/or other third parties and would thus be equally, if not more, available to Defendants. Plaintiff objects that this request is impermissibly premature as it calls for expert opinions or testimony. Plaintiff will make his expert disclosures in compliance with the timeframe provided by the Federal Rules and this Court's Orders. Plaintiff expressly reserves the right to supplement this response as new information is discovered and once Defendants have completed their related production.

Subject to and without waiving any objections, Plaintiff identifies the following facts, Plaintiff has suffered injury in the form of stress and anxiety since he learned his information was contained on the Ancestry.com site. Plaintiff feels incredibly passionately that Ancestry.com is inconsistent with his values and personal beliefs and being associated with the site has created emotional upset, to the point that it has impacted Plaintiff's sleeping and his enjoyment of daily life.

INTERROGATORY NO. 4: Identify every email address, telephone number, and billing address You have used since 2009.

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to the relevance of the requested information as it has no bearing on any claims or defenses in this action. Plaintiff objects to this request as unduly burdensome and overbroad given the lengthy temporal scope.

Subject to and without waiving any objections, Plaintiff responds as follows: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

INTERROGATORY NO. 5: State Your full name and every name, including any nicknames, You have used in the past.

ANSWER: Plaintiff responds as follows: Mark Angelo Sessa; Roger Rythym

INTERROGATORY NO. 6: State the name and address of each school or other academic institution You have attended.

1           ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to the relevance of the requested information as it has no 2 bearing on any claims or defenses in this action. Plaintiff further objects to this request as 3 overbroad as it is not limited in time and scope.

4           Subject to and without waiving any objections, Plaintiff attended Western High School, 5 4601 W Bonanza Rd Las Vegas NV 89107; Robert O. Gibson Middle School 3900 West
 6 Washington Avenue, Las Vegas Nevada; Ruth ES Fyfe Elementary School, 4101 W Bonanza Rd 7 Las Vegas 89107.

8           INTERROGATORY NO. 7: List every Person with whom You have shared, or to whom 9 You have released, Your Yearbook Information since the publication of the yearbooks.

10           ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this request as overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not 11 proportional to the needs of the case to the extent it is not limited in time or scope. Plaintiff also 12 objects that this request is vague and ambiguous on account of Defendants not defining the terms 13 “shared” and “released.”

14           Subject to and without waiving any objections, Plaintiff may have invited other students 15 to sign his yearbooks at approximately the time of receipt of the yearbooks. Plaintiff may have 16 also invited his family members to review the content of the yearbook.

17           INTERROGATORY NO. 8: For each Person set forth in Your response to Interrogatory 18 No. 7, separately Describe the date, facts, and circumstances surrounding the sharing or releasing 19 of Your Yearbook Information.

20           ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to the relevance of the requested information as the 21 information, whatever it may be, has no bearing on any claims or defenses in this action. Pursuant 22 to Nev. Rev. Stat. §§ 597.770 et seq., it was Defendants’ obligation to obtain Plaintiff’s “written 23 consent” before making commercial use of their names, photographs, likenesses, and personas
 24 and, Plaintiff alleges, Defendants failed to obtain that prior written consent. Specifically, Plaintiff 25 alleges “Ancestry has not received consent from, given notice to, or provided compensation to the 26 millions of Nevadans whose names, photographs, biographical information, and identities appear
 27 in its Ancestry Yearbook Database” and that “Ancestry did not ask the consent of the people 28

1 whose personal information and photographs it profits from.” Complaint at ¶¶ 4, 13. Whether 2 Plaintiff has consented to a different, entirely unrelated entity’s use of their personal information
 3 is irrelevant to whether Plaintiff gave his consent to Defendants for purposes of “advertising,
 4 selling or soliciting the purchase of any product, merchandise, goods or service.” Plaintiff objects 5 to this request as overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case to 6 the extent it is not limited in time or scope. Plaintiff also objects that this request is vague and 7 ambiguous on account of Defendants not defining the terms “sharing” and “releasing.”

8 Subject to and without waiving any objections, Plaintiff will meet and confer with 9 Defendants regarding information that might be responsive to this request.

10 INTERROGATORY NO. 9: Identify any account You have had with any website that 11 permits the searching of names or pictures, including but not limited to, PeopleConnect, 12 ClassMates, and e-Yearbook.

13 ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to the relevance of the requested information as the 14 information, whatever it may be, has no bearing on any claims or defenses in this action. Plaintiff 15 objects to this request as overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the 16 case to the extent it is not limited in time or scope, particularly this request’s use of the phrases 17 “any account” and “any website.”

18 Subject to and without waiving any objections, Plaintiff will meet and confer with 19 Defendants regarding information that might be responsive to this request.

20 SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER 11/21/2022: The parties met and conferred on this 21 request on October 20, 2022. Ancestry clarified that this request seeks accounts where Plaintiff 22 has created an account with a website that permits the searching of yearbooks or yearbook records.
 23 In light of this conversation, subject to the above and without waiving any objections, to the best 24 of his recollection and consistent with his response to Request No. 16, Plaintiff had an account 25 with Classmates.com associated with his marklesparkle54@yahoo.com email address.

26 INTERROGATORY NO. 10: State whether You have ever searched for any Person, 27 including but not limited to Yourself, on any website that permits searching for names or pictures, 28

1 including any websites relating to genealogy or heritage, and describe all facts regarding the 2 circumstances of each search, including the dates of each search, the website You used to search, 3 and each Person You searched for.

4 ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to the relevance of the requested information as the 5 information, whatever it may be, has no bearing on any claims or defenses in this action. Plaintiff
 6 objects to this request as overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the 7 case to the extent it is not limited in time or scope.

8 Subject to and without waiving any objections, Plaintiff will meet and confer with 9 Defendants regarding information that might be responsive to this request.

10 SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER 11/21/2022: The parties met and conferred on this 11 request on October 20, 2022. Ancestry clarified that this request seeks searches of websites 12 involving genealogy or heritage. In light of this conversation, subject to the above and without 13 waiving any objections, to the best of his recollection, Plaintiff has not searched for any Person 14 on any genealogy or heritage website.

15 INTERROGATORY NO. 11: Identify all Documents evidencing or constituting any 16 agreement or contract You made relating to Your Yearbook Records, if any.

17 ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to the relevance of the requested information as the 18 information, whatever it may be, has no bearing on any claims or defenses in this action. Pursuant 19 to Nev. Rev. Stat. §§ 597.770 et seq., it was Defendants' obligation to obtain Plaintiff's "written 20 consent" before making commercial use of their names, photographs, likenesses, and personas
 21 and, Plaintiff alleges, Defendants failed to obtain that prior written consent. Specifically, Plaintiff
 22 alleges "Ancestry has not received consent from, given notice to, or provided compensation to the 23 millions of Nevadans whose names, photographs, biographical information, and identities appear
 24 in its Ancestry Yearbook Database" and that "Ancestry did not ask the consent of the people
 25 whose personal information and photographs it profits from." Complaint at ¶¶ 4, 13. Whether 26 Plaintiff has consented to a different, entirely unrelated entity's use of their personal information
 27 is irrelevant to whether Plaintiff gave his consent to Defendants for purposes of "advertising, 28

1 selling or soliciting the purchase of any product, merchandise, goods or service.” Plaintiff objects 2 to this request as overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case to 3 the extent it is not limited in time or scope.

4 Subject to and without waiving any objections, Plaintiff answers as follows: Plaintiff 5 cannot recall any occasions when he made an agreement or contract relating to his yearbook 6 record.

7 INTERROGATORY NO. 12: Identify and describe each instance that You requested that 8 any information about You, including but not limited to Your name, age, photograph, club 9 membership or descriptions of public activities, be removed from a publicly available database, 10 website, catalog, or directory.

11 ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this request as overbroad and unduly burdensome in that 12 it is not limited in temporal scope and relates to “any information.” Plaintiff objects to the request 13 as overbroad, unduly burdensome, and seeking information not relevant to the claims and 14 defenses in this action. Plaintiff’s claims, including those under Nev. Rev. Stat. §§ 597.770 et 15 seq., do not require a plaintiff to actively protect their privacy in the way this request suggests.
16 Rather, a defendant is required to ask for prior written consent. Id.

17 Subject to and without waiving any objections, to the extent Plaintiff is able to understand 18 this request, Plaintiff answers as follows: Plaintiff cannot recall any occasions when he requested 19 that his personal information be removed from any publicly available website.

20 INTERROGATORY NO. 13: Identify every social media account or profile that You 21 maintain, including but not limited to LinkedIn, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, TikTok, Twitch, 22 Vimeo, Tumblr, Pintrest, Google+, Snapchat, Reddit, Myspace, YouTube, Tinder, or Flickr.

23 ANSWER: Plaintiff objects that this request is unduly burdensome and not 24 proportional to the needs of the case to the extent it is not limited in time or scope. Plaintiff objects 25 to the relevance of the requested information as the information has no bearing on any claims or 26 defenses in this action. Pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. §§ 597.770 et seq., it was Defendants’ 27 obligation to obtain Plaintiff’s “written consent” before making commercial use of their names, 28

1 photographs, likenesses, and personas and, Plaintiff alleges, Defendants failed to obtain that prior 2 written consent. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges “Ancestry has not received consent from, given 3 notice to, or provided compensation to the millions of Nevadans whose names, photographs, 4 biographical information, and identities appear in its Ancestry Yearbook Database” and that 5 “Ancestry did not ask the consent of the people whose personal information and photographs it 6 profits from.” Complaint at ¶¶4, 13. Whether Plaintiff has consented to a different, entirely 7 unrelated entity’s use of their personal information is irrelevant to whether Plaintiff gave his 8 consent to Defendants for purposes of “advertising, selling or soliciting the purchase of any 9 product, merchandise, goods or service.” Plaintiff objects to this request as overbroad, unduly 10 burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case to the extent it is not limited in time or 11 scope. Plaintiff also objects that this request is vague and ambiguous on account of Defendants 12 not defining the term “maintain.” Plaintiff objects to the term “Pinterest” as unintelligible.

13 Subject to and without waiving any objections, Plaintiff believes that he has or may have 14 previously had the following social media accounts: Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn.

15 INTERROGATORY NO. 14: Identify by date every time You, including through Your 16 counsel, have visited the website www.ancestry.com.

17 ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this request as it seeks information protected by the 18 attorney client-privilege or work-product doctrines. Plaintiff also objects to this request to the 19 extent that it seeks information which is equally available to Defendants.

20 Subject to and without waiving such objections, Plaintiff has not visited the website 21 ancestry.com. Plaintiff will meet and confer with Defendant regarding the remainder of this 22 request.

23 SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER 11/21/2022: The parties met and conferred on this 24 request on October 20, 2022. Ancestry has waived its right to arbitrate any claims in this matter.
 25 Plaintiff confirms there are no responsive privileged documents that need to be logged.

26 INTERROGATORY NO. 15: Identify the Person(s) who took the screenshots in the 27 Complaint and state the date(s) those screenshots were taken.

1           ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this request as it seeks information protected by the 2 attorney client-privilege or work-product doctrines. Plaintiff will meet and confer with Defendant 3 regarding this request.

4           Subject to and without waiving such objections, Plaintiff has never created or used an 5 account with Ancestry. Plaintiff will meet and confer with Defendant regarding the remainder 6 this request.

7           SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER 11/21/2022: The parties met and conferred on this 8 request on October 20, 2022. Ancestry has waived its right to arbitrate any claims in this matter.
 9 Plaintiff confirms there are no responsive privileged documents that need to be logged.

10 INTERROGATORY NO. 16: Plaintiff objects to this request as it seeks information 11 protected by the attorney client-privilege or work-product doctrines. Plaintiff also objects to this 12 request to the extent that it seeks information which is equally available to Defendants. Subject 13 to and without waiving such objections, Plaintiff will meet and confer with Defendant regarding 14 this request. State whether and on what date(s) You or Your counsel has ever created or used an 15 account with Ancestry in connection with this litigation.

16           ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this request as it seeks information protected by the 17 attorney client-privilege or work-product doctrines. Plaintiff also objects to this request to the 18 extent that it seeks information which are equally available to Defendants.

19           Subject to and without waiving such objections, Plaintiff has never created or used an 20 account with Ancestry. Plaintiff will meet and confer with Defendant regarding the remainder of 21 this request.

22           SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER 11/21/2022: The parties met and conferred on this
 23 request on October 20, 2022. Ancestry has waived its right to arbitrate any claims in this matter.
 24 Plaintiff confirms there are no responsive privileged documents that need to be logged.
